

Security card

Security card

A security card is supplied for each locking system and each registered and restricted locking. The security card acts as proof of the legitimate entitlement to re-order keys and locking cylinders as well as data disks and locking plans. It must be shown to the specialist retailer at the time of placing the order.

